Issuance of temporary authority, pending final decision.

SEC. 10. Issuance of Temporary Authority. That upon the filing of an application in good faith for a certificate, or permit, as provided in Sections 7, 8 and 9, respectively, the Commission shall, pending its final decision on the application, issue to the applicant appropriate temporary authority to operate as a common carrier by motor vehicle, or as a contract carrier by motor vehicle, as the case may be, under such just and reasonable conditions and limitations as the Commission deems necessary or desirable to impose in the public interest; provided, however, that pending such final decision on the application, the applicant shall comply with all the provisions of this Act, and with the lawful orders, rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder, applicable to holders of certificates or permits, and upon failure of an applicant so to do, after reasonable notice from the Commission requiring compliance therewith in the particulars set out in the notice, and after hearing, the application may be dismissed by the Commission without further proceedings, and temporary authority issued to such applicant revoked.

Conditions.

Revocation of temporary authority.

SEC. 11. Applications and Hearings.

Operations without certificate or permit, prohibited.

(1) That except as otherwise provided in Sections 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 17 of this Act, no person, after the effective date of this Act, shall engage in the transportation of property in intrastate commerce or continue in any such operations until and unless such persons shall have applied to and obtained from the Commission a certificate or permit authorizing such operations, and it shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly or wilfully operate in intrastate commerce in any manner contrary to the provisions of this Act, or of the rules and regulations of the Commission made pursuant thereto.

Form of application for certificate or permit.

(2) Applications for certificates or permits shall be made to the Commission in writing on forms furnished by the Commission, shall be verified under oath by the applicant, and shall contain such information and in such form and detail as the Commission may require.

Hearing.

(3) Upon filing of an application for a certificate or a permit, the Commission shall, within a reasonable time, fix a time and place for hearing such application not less than thirty (30) days after such filing. The Commission shall cause notice of the time and place of hearing to be given by mail to the applicant, to other motor carriers holding certificates or permits and operating in the territory proposed to be served by the applicant, to other carriers who have pending applications to so operate, and to rail carriers operating in such territory.
